

Suspicious Emails

We are aware that a threat exists of bogus e-mails that may be sent claiming to be from Ebiquity, or from individuals employed by Ebiquity, asking the recipient to forward money or possibly to send information. This sort of scam is unfortunately becoming more common. Please take care to verify that any email purporting to come from Ebiquity is sent from ebiquity.com.

- › Citypoint, 1 Ropemaker Street
London, EC2Y 9AW, UK
+44 (0) 20 7650 9600
- › ebiquity.com
@ebiquityglobal
linkedin.com/company/ebiquity-plc